PLASTPOL - be where the industry decides its future!

For more than 30 years, Plastpol has been setting industry trends and remains the undisputed leader among plastics and rubber processing events in Central Europe. Plastpol is where the heart of international business beats, bringing together experts and innovators who are jointly shaping the future of modern industry. It is a unique meeting platform for the global industry and a precise barometer of the industry's condition.

Plastpol in the New Expo Hall - a higher level of exhibiting

Ahead of us is another great step into the future. The upcoming edition will feature a brand-new space – a modern exhibition hall at Targi Kielce, designed specifically for the most demanding industrial displays and heavy technological lines.

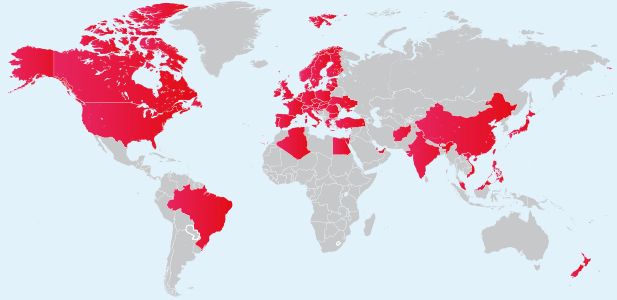

The new expo hall will offer more than 15,500 square metres of exhibition space and a height of 15 metres.
